

Reports (Certification, Probationary, etc.) and Reviews

TCG can assist an institution in submitting annual and multi-year required reports to conference or national organizations. For example, TCG staff can assist an institution in preparing its annual report to the Committee on Infractions during its probationary period.

Concerning the NCAA certification process, TCG staff can assist the institution's personnel in preparing and conducting a compliance review as part of the certification process and the completion of the report.